LOCATION

The Leith area of Edinburgh is located approximately 4 miles to the north-east of the city centre and enjoys good public transport links.

The subjects are located in a mixed commercial and residential area on Sandport Place adjacent to the Water of Leith at its junction with Quayside Street.

Local amenities are available within a short walk including a wide array of bars, cafes and restaurants at The Shore.

Nearby occupiers include: Roseleaf Bar Café, Plumbase, Aldi, Mimi's Bakehouse and Café Truva.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a mid-terrace warehouse premises of steel frame construction and concrete floor contained within metal exterior cladding.

The property is entered off a private car park to the front shared with nearby businesses. There are 3 allocated car parking spaces with the premises.

A short flight of steps leads down into the unit currently arranged with various partitioned work areas, offices, stores and staff facilities set beneath an extensive mezzanine.

To the rear of the warehouse is one roller shutter door approximately 2.4 metres wide leading out to a shared yard which is also accessed off Quayside Street.
