LOCATION

Dunbar is one of East Lothian's most popular and fastest growing commuter towns with a population of around 10,500 people. It is situated approximately 30 miles south-east of Edinburgh.

The town benefits from close proximity to the A1 trunk road linking Edinburgh with the north of England. As well as enjoying good road links Dunbar lies on the East Coast main line with frequent rail services to London and other major cities.

Countess Crescent is located just to the south of the town's High Street and is accessed from Belhaven Road - a main route into the town centre from the A1.

The area is mixed use commercial and residential with nearby occupiers including: The Co-op, Reuse Scotland CIC, Dunbar Foot Clinic and Dunbar Pet Shop.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a former purpose-built supermarket of steel frame construction with brick infill and contained beneath a pitched metal roof.

The property has been divided into two large retail units arranged over ground floor with rear ancillary storage/loading. To the front is a large car park capable of taking 70 cars.

Unit 1A is currently occupied by The Original Factory Shop (ToFS) and provides open plan retail space with LED lighting, hard tiled flooring and a glazed frontage with prominent signage.

ACCOMMODATION

According to our recent measurement survey we calculate the approximate gross internal area to be:

760 sq m (8,181 sq ft)

Consideration will be given to sub-dividing the unit in order to meet specific requirements.
