LOCATION

The subject property is located in Paisley which is situated in Renfrewshire, 9 miles from Glasgow International Airport. It is the largest town in Scotland with a resident population of 75,000 or thereby and is the Administrative Centre for Renfrewshire Council.

The subjects are positioned on the southern side of Glasgow Road which forms part of the arterial A761 road connecting Paisley with the south west of Glasgow and the city centre. It is therefore subject to strong levels of passing vehicular traffic and benefits from free on street parking allowing occupiers the ability to draw upon passing trade. The area is also reasonably densely populated and therefore there is also a relatively large resident population to serve.

The town centre is a short distance to the west including Paisley Gilmour Street railway station which lies under a mile from the subjects.

The subjects form part a larger established retail parade that incorporates a variety of uses and occupiers with free on street parking and a public bus stop immediately in front.

DESCRIPTION

The subject property comprises a self-contained mid terraced traditional retail premises that is contained on the ground floor of a three storey mid terraced traditional sandstone building.

The subjects have traded until recently as a successful newsagent for several years but would also suit a variety of uses under the Class 1A use class. Given its attributes, the unit would also suit a range of alternative uses subject to relevant planning permissions being obtained.

The subjects benefit from a main open plan retail area to the front with a further open plan area to the rear off which a toilet is accessed. A common drying green is situated to the rear of the tenement.
