ALLIED SURVEYORS SCOTLAND

LOCATION

The subjects are situated approximately 4 miles north-west of Edinburgh city centre on West Granton Road close to Granton Harbour.

The surrounding area is a mixture of industrial, commercial and residential uses. To the west of the property is the United Wires factory whilst it is bordered to the south by a single dwelling house with a large housing estate opposite. There are two commercial parades nearby consisting of shops and hot food takeaways. Occupiers include Javits Takeaway, the Anchor Inn, B&M Home Store, Lidl and Iceland.

Public transport connections are widely available from this location, and there is available on street parking directly outside the property.

DESCRIPTION

The subjects comprise a single storey workshop premises of traditional stone and brickwork construction with a pitched slate roof. The property offers two workshop areas separated by a dividing wall. Both connect internally via a small set of steps. The premises has been freshly decorated throughout and new LED light fittings now featuring throughout.

There is a small office situated to the front of the larger of the two workshops with a WC and tea prep at the rear. Useful storage space can be found in a fully floored attic which has Ramsay ladder access.

A side pend provides vehicle access to the rear of the workshop where a 2.6m wide roller shutter provides direct access to the workshop.

The frontage is currently obscured by advertising hoardings however these could be removed to reveal two large window units. The fascia presents prominent signage opportunities to passing traffic.
